Sheriff Harburger gave out the following statement to-day:

'The attention of the boxing clubs s called to the following: I was present last week when two heavyweights entered the ring at the St. Nicholas Club in Sixty-sixth street. One was hog fat and entirely unfit to box for Deputy Charities Commissioner any length of time. The doctor in charge had evidently made but a superficial physical examination. The General Sessions to-day in same thing occurred at the bouts conof Morris Kuttler, a Tombs ducted at the Atlantic Garden on the ner whose wife died last night in Bowery this week. "Gentlemen: In December, 1908, March, 1908, and September, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which continue me everal weeks each time to my bed. My dootor advised me to go West. "In November I started for Denver, Cole. After my arrival I met Michael Bredy, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alisrative. In about two months I began to feel better. I kept on taking the medicine and impreced-fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I think I am entirely well, have a good 45: petite and sleep well. When I left Disaver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank Ged and your Aits native for my health."
